

Letters to the Editor

Another vote for Mayor Mahler

DEAR EDITOR:

My late husband, Warren Hagstrom, was mayor of Wanaque for 15 years. After his family, his great passion was Wanaque's leadership and growth.

Warren had health issues during his last year as mayor. He took our current mayor, Dan Mahler, under his wing, confiding in him and preparing him as his choice for the next mayor.

Coincidentally, I was out of the country when a letter appeared in the Suburban Trends letters to the editor quoting a statement supposedly made by Warren supporting a candidate other than Dan Mahler. It was very upsetting to me to read the article comparing Warren to anyone. Warren would never destroy the Republican Club or condone dividing the member's loyalties, which has happened.

I trust and support for Mayor Dan Mahler, and for councilmen, Dom Cortellessa and Ed Leonard who I believe to be honest, educated, suitable men for these positions.
