

Vote Republican - Row A - Tuesday June 8

DOMINICK CORTELLESA

- Dom resides with his wife Dottie on Warren's Way. Dom has been a resident of Wanaque for 4 years. Dom and Dottie moved to Wanaque from Westchester County to be closer to their four grandsons. They chose to live in Wanaque because of its traditional values, sense of family and its future potential. Dom believes that since Wanaque is probably the last place they will live, that he is as committed to Wanaque's success as anyone else in the community.
- Dom has a Bachelor of Science from Villanova University and an MBA with a specialty in Finance from Iona College. He also has extensive training in Quality and Process Management as a result of participation in the Motorola Quality Program and the System Engineering Institute Capability Maturity Model Program.
- Dom is currently serving his first year on the Wanaque Council, having been selected to replace Ed O'Connell who was elected a Passaic County Freeholder. Dom is currently Chairman of the Road Department, Sewer Department and Public Relations. In addition, Dom also serves as the Council liaison to the Regional Sewer Authority.
- Dom also serves as a member of the Wanaque Planning Board. Prior to joining the Council, Dom served on the Wanaque Board of Adjustment.
- Dom is a member of the Wanaque Republican Club. In June 2009, Dom was elected as a member of the Wanaque Republican Municipal Committee.

- Dom is retired. Dom has extensive business experience at senior leadership levels in Operations, Technology, Finance, Business Development, Sales and Marketing with companies such as IBM, ISO and Citigroup. Dom was President of three successful companies, including a subsidiary of Citigroup.
- Dom is currently serving as the President of the Wanaque Reserve Homeowner's Association. In that role he has fostered a strong relationship with the Borough and supported volunteerism of numerous residents of the Wanaque Reserve in the Wanaque community.
- Dom was very active in his prior community where he owned and operated a restaurant with his son and was member of the Chamber of Commerce. Dom believes that the experience of owning a small business gives him a first hand perspective of the challenges small business owners face.
- Dom is a Veteran, having served in the United States Marine Corps.
- Dom and Dottie are members of St. Francis Church.

Experience, Integrity and Fiscal Responsibility
